Position Location:

SYRCL's office is in Nevada City, CA – a lovely town and community in the Sierra foothills. Historic Nevada City is regarded as a cultural, artistic and environmental hub within the Sierra Nevada Range. Once the epicenter of the California Gold Rush, Nevada City—in proximity to the South Yuba River -- is undergoing a multi-decade renaissance as a model community pursuing ecological and economic sustainability through innovative green enterprises, neo-agrarian renewal and watershed restoration. SYRCL's work is conducted in the beautiful and inspiring Yuba Watershed.

Organization Description:

SYRCL is the leading voice for the protection and restoration of the Yuba River and greater Yuba Watershed. Founded in 1983 through a rural, grassroots campaign to defend the South Yuba River from proposed hydropower dams, SYRCL has developed into a vibrant community organization with over 3,500 members and volunteers based in Nevada City.

Since achieving Wild and Scenic status for the South Yuba River in 1999, SYRCL has developed a variety of successful programs for inspiring environmental activism and supporting responsible watershed stewardship. These range from the Wild and Scenic Film Festival to a River Science Program with a large citizen engagement component and strong standing in collaborative forums.

SYRCL is the leading regional supporter for creating resilient human and natural communities throughout the greater Yuba River basin by restoring creeks and rivers, restoring wild salmon populations, and inspiring and organizing people – from the Yuba's source to the sea.

Program Description:

SYRCL's mission is to unite the community to protect and restore the river. The Stewardship Coordinator will work at the intersection of multiple SYRCL programs including the Wild & Scenic Film Festival, River Science, River People (Community Engagement), Education and Restoration. This role serves to assist SYRCL in recruiting, organizing and engaging volunteers to participate in volunteer opportunities in all SYRCL programs and outreach events.

SYRCL's Restoration Program, which was developed from a long-standing River Science Program assessing conditions of the watershed and building a scientific foundation for restoration activities. The River Science Program also involves a large group of River Monitors and volunteers ready to promote stewardship with excellent training and guidance.

In September, SYRCL coordinates the Yuba River Cleanup and Restoration Day within the Yuba Watershed. This program involves volunteers removing trash at over 30 sites along 80+ miles of shoreline, and additionally includes several small-scale restoration projects.

In 2012, SYRCL launched the River Ambassadors Program, a volunteer-based initiative to educate and motivate the thousands of annual visitors to the Yuba River within the South Yuba River State Park to help keep the park clean and safe. The program was created in response to the reduced services provided by the state park staff. By talking face-to-face to visitors at river crossings, at beaches and on trails, SYRCL's corps of volunteer River Ambassadors vastly expand outreach about the Yuba and how visitors can care for it.

SYRCL also leads several educational excursions to areas of important SYRCL work including high alpine meadows, state park lands, and restoration sites. Additionally, SYRCL provides outreach at many of their own events and also other community events.
